This institute Shree J.B.Dharukawala women's arts & commerce college, varacha area and the entire Surat city is well known for its high academic quality apart from its well-rounded social development of students.

The responsibility of the students and educational institutions is also to fulfill the social role. In this duty too, the this institution has fulfilled its responsibility super. Along with imparting quality education and its propagation, this institution has also put in a beautiful display of social service.

This organization has always been a leader in efficiently meeting the needs of the society and the region whenever they arose. A lot of efforts have been made by the institution to develop social skills among the students studying in the institution and to make the students truly good citizens, global people. From the time of inception of the organization till the end of natural calamity, man made problems in Surat city, this organization has always been doing service/activities by joining social organizations, N.G.O, Voluntary Organizations.

This organization has done commendable work during natural calamities like plague, earthquake etc. Along with that, our organization has done useful work for the society by connecting with the organizations involved in epidemics, epidemics, disease awareness, diagnosis and treatment etc.

In the academic year 2016-17, the social useful works related to health have been done by this institution details of which are as follows.

In the first session of the academic year 2016-17, on the auspicious day of October 2nd Gandhi Jayanti, a large-scale medical camp for diagnosis of diseases was organized by the institute to be useful to the society by a team of proper and expert doctors of Surat city. In order to make diagnosis and treatment available, the wide angle advertised so that patients were registered and camps were organized in which free diagnosis of diseases like BP, etc.Possible disease medicines were also distributed. Necessary guidance advice was provided to further benefit patients with higher treatment and diagnostic potential. Approximately 2000 patients benefited in this camp. Academics, non-academics and students of the college put in a lot of effort in this camp.

A fund raising program was held for martyrs with the support of s20 channel to benefit the families of our brave and brave soldiers protecting the land of India. I was generously provided financial courtesy by the faculty and students of the college. Contribution of substantial amount like Rs.20,000 to the concerned organization.

A cordial visit was conducted to 'Jananidham', an organization providing ashram for women suffering from HIV disease. On 25/02/2017, 2 teachers and 55 students stayed at Jananidham for whole days and did a wonderful job of providing mental warmth and refreshments to the sisters suffering from HIV.
